Re: United States v. Ng Lap Seng,
 15 Cr. 706 (VSB)

Dear Judge Broderick:

As the Court is aware, the Government understands that defendant Ng Lap Seng is pending discharge from the hospital this afternoon. Per the Board-certified expert cardiologist and neurologist whom the Government retained, who have reviewed the pertinent medical records and spoken to the treating physicians, there is no medical reason why the defendant cannot surrender by noon tomorrow, Friday, July 13, as the Court ordered. The Government respectfully requests that the Court set a deadline of 2 p.m. today, Thursday, July 12, for any potential defense objection to surrender as ordered, to allow the Government sufficient time to respond and the Court to consider the submissions and rule in advance of the July 13 surrender deadline.

Respectfully submitted,

GEOFFREY S. BERMAN
United States Attorney
